

Bringing the Community Home for Healthcare Marketing Campaign Momentum

We worked with ENH through concept, then art directed captivating location photography within the surrounding community, capturing the essence of "world-class medicine close to home." The newsletter became a vital conduit for fundraising momentum, photography was repurposed for several other communications and events.

